Please email me through UF email (bart@ufl.edu). Office hours are by arrangement. All lecture materials are online and asynchronous.

CATALOG DESCRIPTION:

Lecture - Identification, growth characteristics, culture and use of common landscape and greenhouse plants. Materials include trees, shrubs, vines, ground covers, floriculture crops. Emphasis is on temperate and subtropical plants, but some tropical plants are covered and often are grown in temperate areas as houseplants or in greenhouses or conservatories.

COURSE OBJECTIVES: Upon completing this course, students should be able to:

- 1) Comprehend fundamental plant morphological characteristics used to identify common landscape and other plant materials
- 2) Apply basic principles of botanical and horticultural taxonomy and nomenclature to describe plants
- 3) Understand the origin, use and function of plants in our environment

REQUIRED READING

The following textbooks are required:

Dehgan, B. 1998. Landscape Plants for Subtropical Climates. The University Press of Florida.

Harris, J. G. and Harris, M. W. 2006 (2nd edition). Plant Identification Terminology – An Illustrated Glossary. Spring Lake Publishing, Spring Lake, UT.

Additional references and study guides will also be provided when appropriate.

COURSE PREREQUISITES: Junior level standing or higher, or permission of the instructor.

CONTENT AND ORGANIZATION:

Both the undergraduate (ORH3513) and graduate course (ORH5117) consists online lecture materials.

Lectures are in the form of modular video presentations. They are asynchronous and Canvas-based. All exams are in Canvas and will use proctoring by Honorlock. Questions about lecture materials can be addressed to the professor by appointment. The lecture consists of approximately 40 video modules, along with their PDF transcripts and PDF handouts of the PowerPoint presentations. Watch the videos each week and be prepared the following class session to be quizzed on that material.

Lecture materials include terminology used in plant identification, rules and application of plant nomenclature (botanical and horticultural), relevant plant materials to illustrate terminology and other lecture topics, and functional aspects of horticultural plants in our environment. The learned plant materials will build on lecture material and expose students to other plant materials also related to lecture topics.

All terminology is important, but in this course, the most crucial terms are the vegetative features, in this course largely focused on leaves and stems. A flashcard deck and online file will be made available at the beginning of the course, and you are required to recall all the terms on the flash cards without any word banks, clues, or special hints. Many other vegetative, floral or fruit terms will be tested using multiple choice, T/F, or matching with word banks. However, you are responsible for any terms and conceptual materials mentioned in lectures (live before lab or online) with all the above methods of testing as well as with fill-in-the-blank questions. You will be asked to commit terms other than those presented in the flashcard deck to memory. A study guide entitled “Concepts and Terms” will be made available prior to the midterm and final.

Summaries of course evaluation results are available to students at: <https://gatorevals.a.ufl.edu/public-results/>.

ASSESSMENT AND GRADING:

Lecture Assessments:

Weekly Quizzes	20% of grade (lowest quiz dropped)
Midterm Exam	40% of grade
Final Exam	40% of grade

Students in the graduate section (HOS5117C) will have an additional assignment (individually arranged with the professor that will be added to the above and will constitute 20% of the course grade. In other words, 80% of the course will be divided up as stated above, and the additional 20% will come from the graduate assignment, as follows:

Weekly Quizzes	16% of grade (lowest quiz dropped)
Midterm Exam	32% of grade
Final Exam	32% of grade
Project	20% of grade

GRADES AND GRADE POINTS

For information on current UF policies for assigning grade points, see <https://catalog.ufl.edu/UGRD/academic-regulations/grades-grading-policies/>.

Remember that grades posted under Canvas grades are ONLY RAW scores for your weekly quizzes, midterms and finals. The calculation of their relative values has not been made; therefore the values Canvas calculates from those raw scores are NOT correct. You will have to do extra math to determine how you are doing in the course!

Grade Range: Course letter grades will be based on the following scale:

A	92.45-100	C	72.45-76.44
A-	89.45-92.44	C-	69.45-72.44
B+	86.45-89.44	D+	66.45-69.44
B	82.45-86.44	D	62.45-66.44
